GOVERNMENT OF TELANGANA

PRESS RELEASE

13th January, 2017

Hon'ble Chief Minister Sri K. Chandrashekar Rao on Thursday has asked the officials concerned to prepare plans for encouraging sheep breeding on a major scale in the State. The Chief Minister has held a review meeting on the matter at Pragathi Bhavan here with officials from the Animal Husbandry department.

He said his government's aim is to encourage various rural based professions so as to infuse new strength in the rural economy. He wanted all the ministers, MLAs and Collectors to help the formation of Fishermen and Sheep rearers Societies in all the district and the programme should taken as a movement. He said there should be an end to people migrating from the rural areas in the Telangana State. Animal Husbandry Special Chief Secretary Sri Suresh Chanda, Director Sri D. Venkateswara Rao, CMO Senior Officials Sri S. Narsing Rao, Sri Bhoopal Reddy, Ms Shanti Kumari and Ms Smita Sabharwal participated.
