

CHIEF MINISTER'S OFFICE
GOVERNMENT OF TELANGANA

PRESS RELEASE

26th January, 2017

Hon'ble Chief Minister Sri K. Chandrashekar Rao on Wednesday has instructed officials to set up a Super Speciality Hospital along with the Health University in Warangal City and four Super Speciality Hospitals in Hyderabad by end of this year. The CM also instructed the officials concerned to shift Warangal Jail, Hyderabad Race Course and Chanchalguda Jail in the city to a different place. He said funds for the establishment of the hospitals should be allocated in this Budget. The CM held a review meeting at Pragathi Bhavan on the establishment of the Super Speciality Hospitals and Shifting of Jails and Hyderabad race Course.

Medical and Health Minister Dr C. Laxmareddy, Chief Advisor to the Government Sri Rajiv Sharma, Chief Secretary Sri SP. Singh, Senior officials Sri Rajiv Trivedi, Sri Tiwari, Sri Ramakrishna Rao, Sri S. Narsing Rao, Kaloji Health University VC Prof. Karunakar, DGP Sri Anurag Sharma, CP Sri Mahender Reddy and others participated.

The Chief Minister wanted that the Warangal Central Jail premises which is adjacent to the Kakatiya Medical College should be made into one campus and there super specialty Hospital, Health University and Maternity Block should be constructed. He wanted the officials to prepare the proposals in this regard. The Central Jail should be shifted to the outskirts of the Warangal City. The Jail should be shifted after making alternative arrangements. Warangal MGM Hospital should also be developed. In Hyderabad, the Chief Minister wanted the shifting of Chanchalguda Jail and Hyderabad Race Courses and Residential Institutions and other such people utility institutions should come up there. He also wanted the officials to prepare proposals.

CPRO to CM