Hon'ble Chief Minister Sri K. Chandrashekar Rao has reviewed the development works progress of Major temples in the State Yadadri and Vemulawada on Sunday in Pragathi Bhavan. Yadadri CEO Sri G. Kishan Rao, EO Smt. The CM examined the Yadadri Temple Queue Complex models and gave suggestions. As was decided earlier, the CM said the Q Complex and Bus Stand should be created not on the Hill but at the foot of the Hill. A ring road should be formed around the Hill. The CM also reviewed the plan of the Special Guest Houses and instructed the officials to complete the works with more concentration and focus. He also wanted works at the Vemulawada Temple to be speeded up. He has asked the Special Officer Sri Purushotham Reddy to take up the constructions based on the designs given by the Temple Sculptors. Vemulawada officials have given the CM a Prasadam from the Sringeri Mutt.
