

CHIEF MINISTER'S OFFICE
GOVERNMENT OF TELANGANA

PRESS RELEASE-2

15th October 2015

Jury for the India Business Leader Awards (IBLA) has unanimously chosen Telangana as the 'Promising State of the Year'. In a communication to Hon'ble Chief Minister Sri K. Chandrashekar Rao, Managing Editor of CNBC-TV18 Ms. Shereen Bhan mentioned that the awards, now in their 11th year, reaffirm IBLA commitment to applauding entrepreneurs and business leaders who break new ground, not just in growth, scale, and market leadership, but do so with integrity, honesty and commitment to all stakeholders.

The State has clearly met, even surpassed, each of the criteria laid down by the jury and demonstrated outstanding promise to clinch the award, the letter mentioned. The Jury was chaired by Uday Kotak and included as its members Dilip Shanghvi, Shikha Sharma, Sanjay Nayar, Cyril Shroff and V.G. Siddhartha.

Stories on Hon'ble Chief Minister's journey of leadership, achievements and success were telecast on CNBC-TV18 while declaring the coveted the award. Managing Editor, CNBC-TV18 requested the Hon'ble CM to join them at India Business Leader Awards ceremony, to be held in Mumbai soon.

Chief Minister Sri K. Chandrashekar Rao expressed happiness for Telangana having been chosen as the 'Promising State of the Year.'
