

CHIEF MINISTER'S OFFICE
GOVERNMENT OF TELANGANA

PRESS RELEASE

5th April, 2016

Sri S. Venkat Narayan, President of the New Delhi based Foreign Correspondents' Club (FCC) of South Asia extended an invitation to Chief Minister Sri K. Chandrashekar Rao requesting him to make PowerPoint Presentation on Schemes, Programmes and Development Activities in Telangana. Congratulating Chief Minister Sri Narayan in a letter addressed to him said, "I was delighted to see and read about your fascinating presentation in the State Assembly on 31st March 2016. Possibly, this is the first time that such a presentation was made in a Legislature anywhere in the world."

He further stated that, "It gives me great pleasure to invite you as a Special Guest to the FCC to introduce you to the global media as a dynamic Chief Minister of the newest State in India. Please make a presentation on what you could achieve so far and on your future plans. This can be followed up by a question and answer session and an interaction with our members."

Established in 1958, the FCC is possibly the oldest and most prestigious institution of its kind in South Asia. Over 500 foreign and Indian journalists based in New Delhi and covering all the South Asian countries for important newspapers, magazines, radio and television channels from all over the world are its members.

Hon'ble Chief Minister thanked President of FCC for the invitation.

CPRO to CM